Draft

The draft consists of 18 rounds. The draft method is the reverse method where the order is reversed in the even-numbered rounds. Each team selects one player per round for a total of 18 players.

Each franchise must draft

- 3 Quarter Backs (QB)
- 4 Running Backs (RB)
- 6 Wide Receivers (WR)
- 1 Flex Player - Running Back or Wide Receiver
- 2 Kickers (K)
- 2 Defenses (DEF)

Tight Ends are considered Wide Receivers and Special Teams are part of the Defense. You may draft players in any order.

Starting Lineups

Each team will submit a 9-player lineup each week. If you do not submit a lineup, it will remain the same as the previous week. All players are locked at kickoff of their game. The flex position can only be either a RB or WR allowing two possible lineup combinations.

9 Player Starting Lineups

Option One:

1 QB, 2 RB, 4 WR, 1 K, 1 DEF

Option Two:

1 QB, 3 RB, 3 WR, 1 K, 1 DEF
